

2018 NSMA Scholarship Winner
Sui Za Len

A student at Metropolitan Community College in Omaha, Nebraska, completing the program in August, 2018 with an associates degree in Medical Assisting. Her instructors are Dona Marotta, MHA, CMA (AAMA) and Melanie Shaw, CMA (AAMA), members of NSMA.

She is also an interpreter/translator at CHI Health, assisting the healthcare provider and serving as a community leader for many Chin and Burmese families.

She says “Patients need more than a treatment plan because they also need to be surrounded by hope, confidence, and respect. I want others to not be afraid to lead by example and prove that being a CMA is the greatest medical profession one can be. Becoming a CMA is my career choice and a goal I will achieve with much pride and honor!”
