CODE OF ETHICS

The Code of Ethics of the American Association of Medical Assistants (AAMA), Inc. and Nebraska Society of Medical Assistants (NSMA) shall set forth principles of ethical and moral conduct as they relate to the medical profession and the practice of medical assisting.

Members of the AAMA and NSMA dedicated to the conscientious pursuit of their profession, and desiring to merit the high regard of the entire medical profession and the respect of the public which they serve, do pledge themselves to strive always to:

- A. Render service with full respect for the dignity of humanity.
- B. Respect confidential information obtained through employment unless legally authorized through employment or required by responsible performance of duty to divulge such information.
- C. Uphold the honor and high principles of the profession and accept its disciplines.
- D. Seek to continually improve the knowledge and skills of medical assistants for the benefit of patients and professional colleagues.
- E. Participate in additional service activities aimed toward improving the health and well-being of the community.

CREED

I believe in the principles and purposes of the profession of medical assisting.

I endeavor to be more effective.

I aspire to render greater service.

I protect the confidence entrusted in me.

I am dedicated to the care and well-being of all people.

I am loyal to my employer.

I am true to the ethics of my profession.

I am strengthened by compassion, courage and faith.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be Nebraska Society of Medical Assistants, hereinafter known as NSMA. It is a constituent society affiliated with the American Association of Medical Assistants Inc. (AAMA).

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES/PURPOSE

The purpose of the society is to enable medical assisting professionals to enhance and demonstrate the knowledge, skills and professionalism required by employers and patients; to protect medical assistants' right to practice; and promote effective, efficient health care delivery through optimal use of multi-skilled CMA (AAMA).

ARTICLE III - ORGANIZATIONAL POLICY

This society is hereby declared to be nonprofit. It is not nor shall it ever become a trade union or collective bargaining agency. No person otherwise qualified for membership in this society shall be denied membership. No person who participates in the activities of organizations whose purpose is to overthrow the Government of the United States shall become a member of this Society.

ARTICLE IV-MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Member Classes

There shall be 6 classes of membership on the society level: Active, Affiliate, Associate, Member-At-Large, Student, and Sustaining (honorary and life membership categories are optional).

- A. Membership in a component chapter, a constituent society and AAMA shall be required (except for honorary members), unless there is no component chapter in the area.
- B. No other membership or quasi-membership classes shall be permitted by this society or a component chapter of this society.
- C. An individual, other than life or honorary member, may not belong to a component chapter without also belonging to this society and AAMA. If there is no component chapter, the member shall be considered a "member at large" and may belong to the AAMA and the constituent society without belonging to a component chapter.

Section 2 - Qualifications

- A. Active -An active member shall be one of the following:
 1. A CMA (AAMA) holding current credential status and whose CMA (AAMA) credential has not been revoked as provided by the AAMA Certifying Board Disciplinary Standards and Procedures for the CMA (AAMA).
 2. Anyone who was an active member on December 31, 1987 and who has maintained continuous active membership. Continuous active membership shall be defined as having dues postmarked or submitted electronically to the Executive Office by December 31 (the controlling time is that of sending, not that of receiving).
- B. Sustaining: Anyone who has been an active or associate member for at least two years and who has retired from medical assisting and is eligible for sustaining membership. This membership shall be forfeited if not renewed annually.
- C. Associate member:
 1. An associate member shall be a medical assistant who is not yet a CMA (AAMA) and who does not fall under any other category.
- D. Student -Student member:

1. Shall be enrolled in a medical assisting program.
 2. May choose a two-year student membership term or a one-year student membership term.
 - a. After a two-year student membership term, the member is then eligible only for either associate membership or active membership (if the member meets the active membership requirements).
 - b. After a one-year student membership term, the member is eligible for a second year of student membership as long as the member renews during the member's one-year student membership term. After the second-year of student membership, the member is then eligible only for either associate membership or active membership (if the member meets the active membership requirements).
 - c. No member is eligible for more than a total of two consecutive years of Student membership.
- E. Affiliate member: An affiliate member shall be one who is not eligible for another category of membership but who is interested in the profession of medical assisting.
- F. Member-at-Large- A member-at-large is one who meets all the qualifications of active, associate, affiliate, student, and sustaining except that a component chapter does not exist in the area of residence. Such a member shall pay only state and national dues.

Section 3 - Privileges

- A. All rights and privileges of membership in this society shall be given to active and life members. Only members who are CMA (AAMA) may be candidates for office, unless otherwise specified by state society bylaws.
- B. Sustaining members shall not vote, hold office, chair committees or serve as delegates to the society's General Assembly, unless otherwise specified by society bylaws.
- C. Associate members may not vote, hold office, chair a committee or serve as delegates, unless otherwise specified by society bylaws.
- D. Student members may not vote, hold office, chair a committee or serve as delegates (unless specified by society bylaws).
- E. Honorary members may not vote, hold office, chair a committee, or serve as delegates.
- F. Affiliate members may not vote, hold office, chair a committee, or serve as delegates.

Section 4 - Revocation

Any member who has had their CMA (AAMA) credential revoked by the AAMA Certifying Board Disciplinary Standards and Procedures for CMA (AAMA) (see www.aama-ntl.org) will immediately lose their membership and all privileges attached thereto and shall not be allowed reinstatement, unless the revocation of the credential is rescinded by the Certifying Board. No refund of any dues amount paid will be made.

Section 5 - Member in Good Standing

A member in good standing is one whose: a) dues are not delinquent, b) financial obligations to the organization have been met, c) actions are in conformance with the bylaws and Code of Ethics of AAMA/NSMA and d) whose CMA (AAMA) credential has not been revoked as provided by the AAMA Certifying Board Disciplinary Standards and Procedures for CMAs (AAMA) (see www.aama-ntl.org).

ARTICLE V - DUES

Section I. Annual society dues for all classes of members shall be fixed by the General Assembly upon recommendation by the Board of Directors. Dues shall become due and payable November 1 and shall be delinquent if not postmarked or submitted electronically to the AAMA Executive Office by December 31 (the controlling time is that of sending, not that of receiving).

- A. Full dues will be assessed for active, associate, and affiliate members.
- B. One-half dues will be assessed for sustaining members.
- C. Dues will be assessed for student members.
- D. Honorary and Life members are not required to pay dues.

Section 2 – Dues for new members joining on or after September 1 shall be credited to the following year.

Section 3 - To serve and continue to serve as a Delegate or Alternate, an Officer, or a Trustee, a member's dues shall be postmarked or submitted electronically to the AAMA Executive Office by December 31 for each year of office (the controlling time is that of sending, not that of receiving). Officers and trustees must maintain current membership during their terms of office.

Section 4 - Constituent societies shall offer reciprocity to members transferring membership from a state society and/or component chapter. The transferring member shall present proof of current AAMA membership.

Section 5 – Membership belongs to the individual and shall be non transferable.

3. Delegates/alternates are to be registered for the entire conference and in attendance prior to the opening session and remain until the end of conference. Delegates/alternates are expected to arrive at all functions at the scheduled start time.
4. Attendance is required for all delegates/alternates at the AAMA House of Delegates (HOD) including the Reference Committees and Meet the Candidates, AAMA Board of Trustees, (BOT) meetings held during the conference, the State Leader's meeting, the Excel Awards, HOD Orientation for Delegates/Alternates, and the President's Luncheon/Banquet.
5. The AAMA conference agenda will be reviewed annually by both the NSMA BOD and the delegates/alternates at the post conference and/or summer board meetings. Required attendance at leadership training functions and sessions beneficial to NSMA will be reviewed and determined at that time. Delegates/alternates may be called upon at any time during the annual meeting; therefore, the delegation should be prepared to forego other activities if necessary.
6. Delegate/alternate participation in personal educational sessions at the AAMA conference is encouraged but at the selection of the individual and must not conflict with other mandatory attendance requirements unless excused in advance by the BOD.
7. At times there are last minute changes to the AAMA conference agenda. The Chair of the Delegates is in charge of making on site decisions affecting delegate/alternate duties.
8. Delegates/alternates are elected for a period of one year from the opening of the AAMA HOD until the next opening of the HOD and must be familiar with NSMA and AAMA Bylaws.

9. Delegates/alternates need to be familiar with parliamentary procedure as it pertains to the election of officers, amendments to bylaws, the presentation of resolutions and other business in the AAMA HOD.
10. Alternate delegates must be as well prepared as the delegates since they may need to assume the duties of the delegate at any time. If an alternate delegate must replace a delegate, the parties involved should contact the AAMA Speaker of the House and the Credentials Committee Chair immediately.
11. Delegates and Alternates are to submit a written report following the AAMA conference and is due in 60 after the conference. This report is to be sent to all BOD members and will be published in the General Assembly packet.
12. The expense allotment for delegates/alternates will be determined each year during the summer NSMA BOD. Total reimbursed expenses must be kept within the budgeted amounts. If an employer pays any/all of the conference expenses (including registration) this amount will not be duplicated for reimbursement.
13. Reimbursement requests must be itemized on the NSMA Travel Expense Voucher with original receipts attached and submitted to the NSMA Treasurer within 30 days after the close of the conference. Voucher forms are available from the Treasurer. A committee composed of the Treasurer, Budget & Finance chair, and Immediate Past President (or a third member who did not attend the conference) will audit receipts and report back to the BOD.
14. If a delegate/alternate to the AAMA conference does not fulfill the duties and responsibilities of the position, the BOD will consider the option of requesting a refund from the delegate/alternate, not approving expenses for reimbursement and/or disqualifying the member from this position for future years.
15. Delegates and Alternates will receive half of the allotted amount for the AAMA Conference at the post conference meeting in order for them to make travel arrangements. The other half will be given at the NSMA BOD meeting prior to the AAMA conference. NSMA Travel Advance forms will be filled out for both payments prior to receiving any check Any advanced payment in excess of the actual expenses incurred must be returned to NSMA within 30 days. Forms are available from the NSMA Treasurer.
16. Not only are the delegates/alternates required to attend certain functions at the AAMA conference, they are also expected to share information with NSMA on their return and actively participate on the NSMA BOD in the year that they are elected.
17. The NSMA President will present a card to the incoming AAMA President with a note and $25.00 donation to a charity/group of the AAMA President's choice. This is presented to the new AAMA President at the end of the installation ceremony with the rest of the delegation present.
